

Press release of 12th December 2016

Florian Raemy, new financial director (CFO) of Groupe Mutuel

The Board of Groupe Mutuel has appointed Mr Florian Raemy as financial director (CFO) of Groupe Mutuel. He will replace Mr Samuel Marchetti who died suddenly last spring. Aged 45 and born in Zurich, Mr Florian Raemy is an expert in finance, which led him to hold various high-level positions in different contexts.

Florian Raemy holds a bachelor's degree in physics and a master's degree in telecommunications from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology (EPFL) in Lausanne. He completed his training at the Geneva School of Economics and Management, where he obtained an MBA in international management, and later specialized in financial management at the Wharton Business School.

His expertise led him to take on various important positions in the financial sector. He worked in the field of financial data visualization for UBS, as Senior Consultant for Arthur Andersen in Geneva and for ELCA Business Consulting in Lausanne. He then acted as manager for private banks and insurance companies. He was also in charge of financial services at IBM.

Finally, he spent the last nine years with Pictet Wealth Management where he was in charge of strategy development before becoming Head of Finance.

Groupe Mutuel is looking forward to welcoming Mr Florian Raemy. His knowledge and significant experience in financial services are major assets that will allow Groupe Mutuel to consolidate its position in the ever-more demanding and competitive field of personal and contents insurance. He will take up his duties on 1 June 2017.
