Groupe Mutuel appoints a new Director for its Customers & Markets' Department

Martigny, 2 July 2019. Following the appointment of Mr Thomas Boyer as CEO last May, Groupe Mutuel is further strengthening its organisation. As a result, Mr Pierre-Luc Marilley will become the new Director of the Customers & Markets' Department and Member of the Executive Board. Mr Vincent Claivaz, who was temporarily in charge of the department, will therefore be able to concentrate solely on the management of the Corporate and Occupational Benefits' Department.

The Board of Groupe Mutuel appointed Mr Pierre-Luc Marilley as the new Director of the Customers & Markets' Department. Mr Marilley is 54 years old, married and has two children. He holds a Master's degree in Economy from the University of Fribourg and studied at the Boston and London Business Schools.

Thanks to his knowledge and expertise in both sales and customer services, he has held various senior positions at Swisscom. There, he was in charge of Swisscom Mobile Customer Service and Director of Sales for Swisscom Residential Customers and is currently Senior Vice President Projects & Consulting for Swisscom Enterprise. Throughout his career, Pierre-Luc Marilley has met significant challenges in terms of customer service and successfully implemented multi-channel sales strategies.

Groupe Mutuel is delighted to be able to count on the expertise of Mr Pierre-Luc Marilley who will be joining the company on 1 October. "In a rapidly changing field where the challenges to satisfy our customers and develop our sales channels are numerous, we are convinced that Mr Marilley has the ideal profile to allow us to achieve our objectives," says Karin Perraudin, President of Groupe Mutuel.
