

Press release of 16 January 2017

Marc Olivier Delévaux, new director of corporate affairs and pension funds of Groupe Mutuel

The Board of Groupe Mutuel has appointed Mr Marc Olivier Delévaux as director of corporate affairs and pension funds of Groupe Mutuel, as from 1 April 2017. Mr Marc Olivier Delévaux, born in Zurich, married and aged 54, is an expert in insurance and risk management, which led him to hold various high-level positions as insurer, broker and reinsurer.

Marc Olivier Delévaux holds a diploma in risk management and a federal diploma in insurance. He also holds a Certificate of Advanced Studies from the University of St. Gallen and completed different specialisations in life insurance and pension funds.

His expertise led him to take on a number of leading positions in the area of insurance. He began his career in reinsurance with SwissRe in Zurich before completing his experience working as customer service representative for the broker AON, also in Zurich. Afterwards, he was in charge of Broker and Key Accounts with Axa in Winterthur and Lausanne. He also held various managing positions with the Zurich Group, took part in strategic projects in France and acquired practical experience in the United States and the United Kingdom.

Groupe Mutuel is looking forward to welcoming Mr Marc Olivier Delévaux who will join the company on 1 April 2017. In an area highly exposed to competition, Groupe Mutuel intends, with this appointment, to develop its services and expertise for small, medium and large businesses in Switzerland, as well as in the management of pension funds.
