

Press release of 30 April 2025

Stéphan Studer joins the Executive Board of Groupe Mutuel

Martigny, 30 April 2025. Following the departure of Sophie Revaz, the Board of Groupe Mutuel has appointed Stéphan Studer as Head of Individual Health and member of the Executive Board. Groupe Mutuel would like to thank Sophie Revaz for her dedication to the company and wishes her every success for the future.

As announced on 13 December 2024, after more than 14 years with Groupe Mutuel, of which 12 as a member of the Executive Board, Sophie Revaz has decided to join Banque Cantonale du Valais (BCV) from 1 May 2025. Thomas Boyer, CEO of Groupe Mutuel, would like to extend his heartfelt thanks to Sophie for her dedication to the company: “Sophie made a significant contribution to the development and transformation of Groupe Mutuel. I would like to thank her most sincerely for her strong commitment over the years and wish her every success in her new challenge at the BCV.”

To replace her, the Board of Groupe Mutuel has appointed Stéphan Studer as Head of Individual Health and member of the Executive Board, effective 1 September 2025 and subject to formal approval by the relevant supervisory authorities. Stéphan Studer is 49 years old and a certified physiotherapist. He holds a Master’s degree in Social Sciences from the University of Lausanne, an Executive MBA from the University of Geneva as well as a Certificate in Advanced Studies (CAS) in Health Care Administration from the University of St. Gallen.

Stéphan Studer is currently Chief Operating Officer and member of the Executive Board of the Hirslanden Group. He previously held various management positions at Hirslanden, including Director of Clinique La Colline in Geneva. Before joining the Hirslanden Group, he was Administrative Director of the Musculoskeletal Department and the Clinical Neurosciences’ Department at the Lausanne University Hospital (CHUV). In addition to his professional career, Stéphan Studer has worked for many years as an international football referee.

“I look forward to welcoming Stéphan Studer to the Executive Board. His extensive management experience in the healthcare sector and his in-depth understanding of the challenges facing healthcare providers and the health system will be significant assets for Groupe Mutuel”, said Thomas Boyer.

Media contact

Loïc Mühlemann, Head of Communications
Tel. 058 758 32 08, Mobile 079 797 86 69

About Groupe Mutuel

With over 2,700 employees across Switzerland, Groupe Mutuel serves more than 1.3 million individual customers and over 31,000 companies. As the only multiline insurer in Switzerland, Groupe Mutuel is the reference partner in the field of health and retirement benefits for private and corporate customers. Its turnover exceeds CHF 5.8 billion. Thanks to tailored solutions, whether in basic insurance (LAMal/KVG) or supplemental insurance (LCA/VVG), it is the third largest health insurer in Switzerland. Groupe Mutuel also offers an extensive range of products in individual retirement benefits and patrimony insurance. Based in Martigny, the insurer provides companies of all sizes with solutions for loss of earnings in the event of illness, accident insurance (LAA/UVG) and occupational pension plans (LPP/BVG). In the field of corporate health insurance, Groupe Mutuel is ranked fourth nationwide.