

Press release of 2 May 2017

Annick Chevillot will be the new Head of Corporate Communications of Groupe Mutuel

The Executive Board of Groupe Mutuel has appointed Ms Annick Chevillot as the new Head of the Group's Corporate Communications department. Currently in charge of publications for the group "LaPoste", Ms Chevillot will take up her duties on 1 August 2017. She will take over from Mr Yves Seydoux, the current incumbent, who is due to retire in March 2018 while remaining at the disposal of the company until then.

Ms Annick Chevillot has a rich career in journalism having worked as a professionally registered journalist for various Swiss media such as "LeConfédéré", "LaPresse", "Construire", "Dimanche.ch", "Le Matin Dimanche" and "Le Matin". She went on to be in charge of the Society section of the daily newspaper "24 Heures", Editor-in-Chief of "Femina" as well as Editor-in-Chief of "Natura" before joining the group "La Poste". With French as her mother tongue, Ms Annick Chevillot also speaks German and English fluently and has a very good knowledge of Spanish and Italian.

Ms Chevillot will take up her duties on 1 August 2017, replacing Mr Yves Seydoux, the current Head of Communications who will remain with the company until he retires in March 2018. Groupe Mutuel would like to thank Mr Seydoux wholeheartedly for his commitment during 11 years as Head of the company's Corporate Communications department.

Groupe Mutuel is looking forward to welcoming Ms Annick Chevillot. Her expertise and significant experience will allow her to deliver Groupe Mutuel's new communications strategy effectively, including in the area of social networks, publications, media relations and cross-media requirements.
