

Legis^{sana+}

Legal protection for patients

- » Legis^{sana+} helps you defend your interests when you have sustained damage in connection with a medical treatment or a breach of your health privacy rights.

Medical errors can have serious consequences, and the legal steps required to protect your rights are often long and very costly.

With Legis^{sana+}, you will be assisted by competent lawyers or legal experts to defend your interests in the event of disputes with the medical profession (doctors, dentists, surgeons, physiotherapists, etc.) and with hospitals and clinics. You are covered in particular in the following cases:

- In the event of an error in diagnosis or medical treatment (including the most common cosmetic procedures)
- In the event of a breach of data protection rights by the medical profession
- In the event of a defect in a medical product or device (e.g. a faulty hip prosthesis)

↳ Legis^{sana+} benefits

In addition to the legal assistance provided by Dextra Protection juridique SA, Legis^{sana+} covers the following costs:

- Lawyers' fees in the event of legal proceedings or with the prior agreement of Dextra Protection juridique SA
- The costs of expert reports and legal fees
- The costs of proceedings
- Legal compensation granted to the opposing party
- Travel expenses for official hearings and prosecution costs

If the event giving rise to the dispute took place outside Switzerland (or if a court abroad has jurisdiction), insurance cover is limited to CHF 50,000 per case.
